

Indoor Optical Semi Tight Buffer Tube (OSTT)

Applications

- Pigtail assemblies for fusion or mechanical splicing within distribution frames and termination boxes
- Mini patch cables within protected enclosures
- For termination with passive optical components such as connectors
- For mobile or flexible systems
- Laying with air blown

Features

- Metal free indoor cable
- For direct connector assembly with strain relief
- Halogen free and non-corrosive fire gases by LSZH Sheath
- Low fire load for high safety requirements
- Simple installation and usage
- Suitable bending radius

Options

- Available with LSZH or other jacket for flame retardant or any other features (Like PVC or ...)
- Available with special Design according to the customer Request
- Delivery length is as customer request
- Other color coding is available according to the customer Request